

Life in the Vine

Dave Bilbrough

Life in abundance God wants for me
Living from fullness, not focused on my need
I have been grafted back to the vine
All my frugal thinking I'm leaving far behind.

These are the secrets,
these are the secrets
These are the secrets of life in the vine

There will be pruning and testing will come
But I am connected to the life of God's son
The fruits of this union will ripen and grow
By drawing from his presence in every place I go

Slowly I am learning to abide Cleansed by his word,
I am walking in the light
